I would remind all of the fact that mine is the only house in the place where can be found everything that is required in the Field, Lawn or Garden. My stock of

FLOWER and GARDEN SEEDS

is new and of choice selection. On quality of Rhode Island Bent, White Dutch Clover, Red Top, English Lawn Mixture or other varieties, of which I have a large stock, I defy competition. The is the only suitable Fertilizer for a fine lawn. It improves the growth, gives a fine color, and does not produce foul seed, as stable manures do. All of the first class gardeners use it. Refer to them for advice. My stock of is of superior manufacture to any in the city, while my Experience in handling these goods proves that a cheap quality is poor economy. Increased demands for better goods decide my keeping on hand only the best XX, of which I have all sizes required.

THE MORNING NEWS

WASHINGTON.

How the Veto was Received.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The veto came to the Senate, as the bill originated in that chamber. The members were very generally in their seats, and listened with attention to the reading of the document. The grounds on which the message was based were more general in their character than had been anticipated—that is, the President objects not only to the time limit but to the restrictions on travel, the transport system, and other provisions. The veto threw the Senate into some confusion as to the proper disposition to be made of it. The California Senators were evidently much offended by the action of the executive.

Representative Pacheco and other Western members say the next step will be to introduce and press a bill limiting suspension to ten years, which they think will become a law.

The Government of Alaska.

The case of Ball, the Alaska delegate, was practically disposed of in the committee on territories this morning. The committee voted to recommit to the subcommittee on Alaska the bill providing a territorial form of government for the northeastern sections, with instructions to report a bill providing a government for the whole territory, leaving out the provision for a delegate. The case of Mr. Ball having been referred from the elections committee to this committee, this undoubtedly disposes of it for this session.

Suspension of Work at the Washington Navy Yard.

Work in the Washington navy yard is suspended for three months, and all hands are to be discharged today. The apprentices who hold their places for a term of years will, however, be retained, as will be the watchmen and superintendents, but all the skilled mechanics and laborers are to go. The reason is that the Washington yard is used almost wholly in manufacturing navy launches, anchors, and other naval outfittings, of which the government has an ample stock on hand, and the money is needed for other purposes.

A Call for Bonds.

The Secretary of the Treasury this afternoon issued the 112th call for the redemption of bonds of the loan of July 17th and August 5th, 1861, continued at 3½ per cent. from July 1st, 1881. The call is for $15,000,000 and principal and accrued interest, to be paid at the Treasury on the 7th day of June next, and the interest to cease on that day. The following are the numbers of the bonds:—$50, No. 2251 to No. 2465, both inclusive; $100, No. 15,701 to No. 17,750, both inclusive; $500, No. 11,101 to No. 11,960 both inclusive; $1000, No. 53,501 to No. 55,950, both inclusive; $5000, No. 17,101 to No. 17,580, both inclusive; $10,000, No. 36,671 to No. 38,810, both inclusive: total, $15,000,000.

Reducing Letter Postage.

The House committee on postoffices had under consideration today the subject of reducing the rate of letter postage, and heard arguments in favor of a reduction. There are two propositions before the committee, one to reduce the rate from three to two cents per half ounce, and the other to retain the three-cent charge and increase the weight from a half ounce to one ounce. It is thought that the committee will agree to recommend the latter proposition.

Rifles as Presents to Foreign Government.

Two rifles of exquisite workmanship, ordered by the United States Government, are on exhibition in this city. They are intended as presents, one to the Sultan of Muscat, for courtesies extended this country in the presentation of a large collection of curiosities to the National Museum, and the other to the Rajah of one of the Philippine Islands, for kindness to a shipwrecked American crew.

Notes.

Shipherd's health has so much improved that the sergeant-at-arms, who has him in charge, says that he will be able to resume his testimony tomorrow. The general impression is that the death of Hurlbut will have an important influence upon the investigation.

The General Navy Register, arranged in alphabetical order for one hundred years, a volume of 940 pages, has just been published in this city by the author, Thomas H. Hammersly.

The Chinese ambassador and other invited guests witnessed a torpedo experiment and a drill of gatling and Hotchkiss guns, at the navy yard yesterday.

FORTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, April 4.

Senate.

Messrs. Conger, Frye and McPherson were constituted conferees on the life saving service bill.

Mr. Anthony, from the committee on printing, reported a substitute for the bill to publish the official report of the Guiteau trial. It provides that the manuscript of the report shall be furnished without cost to the Government. Placed on the calendar.

Mr. Miller, of California, from the committee on foreign relations, reported favorably with amendment the Senate bill to incorporate the Maritime Canal Company of Nicaragua.

Immediately after the reception of the President's message, vetoing the anti-Chinese bill, at 1.15 o'clock, the President pro tem. suspended the operation of business to lay the communication before the Senate, and directed it to be read. The reading of the message, which was preceded with by the secretary, was listened to with marked interest and attention by the entire Senate.

The message and bill, on motion of Mr. Farley, were temporarily laid upon the table and ordered printed.

Mr. Teller asked the present consideration of the House bill admitting free of duty articles for exhibition at the coming Colorado exposition.

Mr. Anthony said he hoped the request would be granted in view of Mr. Teller's probable immediate retirement from the Senate.

The bill indicated was considered and passed.

The Senate at 5.15 adjourned till tomorrow.

House.

Mr. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the committee on ways and means, reported back a bill admitting, free of duty, articles intended for the national mining and industrial exhibition to be held in Denver during the present year. Passed.

Mr. Chalmers, of Mississippi, introduced a bill mandatory of the apportionment bill, providing that no Congressional district in a state shall contain 10,000 more population than in another in the same state, unless such excess is necessary to prevent the sub-division of a county.

The House went into the committee of the whole on the army appropriation bill.

Mr. Bragg, of Wisconsin, offered an amendment providing that in computing the length of service for additional pay, the time of service on the retired list shall in no case be computed, nor shall any additional pay be allowed for such service.

The amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Bragg, of Wisconsin, an amendment was adopted, providing that any supernumerary officer may be honorably discharged at his own request, with the receipt of one year's pay and allowances for every five years of his service; but no officer shall receive more than three years pay or allowance.

Mr. Bragg, of Wisconsin, raised a point of order against the clause transferring to the Court of Claims claims now pending in the Quartermaster General's Department.

After a long discussion, the chair decided that so much of the clause as merely provides for the transfer of claims was in order, but held that that portion which regulated the manner in which the Court of Claims should act in determining claims submitted to it was not in order.

Mr. Reed, of Maine, appealed from the first portion of the decision, Mr. Hiscock, of New York, from the latter part, and Mr. Townshend, of Illinois, from the decision in toto.

Pending action on the appeals the committee rose and the House at 4.50 adjourned.

The burned district in Hopkinton, Mass., extends from Walcott street on the west to Cemetery on the east. It covers about four acres of ground. The town has been visited by people from miles around. The Selectmen offer $500 reward for the arrest of the incendiary.

Today the fancy dyeing-room of the Pacific mills in Lawrence, will shut down until Monday. The executive committee of the Weavers' Relief Society has voted to call a meeting of weavers for Thursday to organize a union. Calls on the Overseers of the Poor for help have doubled in the last few days.

Last July an inmate of the Worcester Insane Asylum, Albert F. Smith, escaped. He was arrested at Natick, some time after, but again escaped from the police. Tuesday night he was arrested at Natick. On him were found a cocked revolver and a large knife. He bears a striking resemblance to the description of the Bell murderer, and refuses to give an account as to where he has been since last July.

Judge Simonton, in the case of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania against the Standard Oil Company for arrears of taxes, Tuesday morning decided that the commonwealth was entitled to receive from the defendants $31,821.04 for tax, interest and penalties; $1,456.55, Attorney General's commission; $33,277.58 altogether, and judgment for that sum and interest thereon from April 3d, 1882, was ordered to be entered.

Mother Died of Salt Rheum.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicines on earth. Had the worst case Salt Rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relieved or cured until I used the Cuticura Remedies."

Piles! Piles!! Piles!! No One Need Suffer. A sure cure for blind, bleeding, itching and ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams (an Indian remedy), called Dr. Williams's Indian Pile Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 years' standing. No one will suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. WILLIAMS'S INDIAN PILE OINTMENT absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching (particularly at night after getting warm in bed), acts as a poultice; gives instant relief, and is prepared ONLY FOR PILES, itching of the private parts and nothing else. Read what Hon. Judge Collinbury, of Cleveland, says: "I have used scores of pile cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. Williams's Indian Pile Ointment. Egypt's Feelings Towards America.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 4.—The American Minister to Vienna has arrived here from Alexandria. In an interview with Minister Phelps, the Khedive said he did not hesitate to express his preference for American sympathy and cooperation over that which had been offered from other sources. Referring to American schools and colleges, he said America gave, but asked nothing, whilst other nations asked everything and gave nothing.

The Barcelona Riots.

MADRID, April 4.—The streets of Barcelona were crowded with people yesterday. The troops were confined to their barracks. The authorities had a conference with the workmen. The manufacturers vainly endeavored to convince the latter that the Franco-Spanish treaty had not injured the trade of Catalonia. The government is determined to crush the riots.

The Whipping Post.

TORONTO, April 4.—James Chute, the school teacher who was committed to the central prison here for fifteen months, for attempted outrage on one of his pupils, today received the first instalment of forty lashes, also a portion of his sentence. He bore up well after the third or fourth blow. On receiving the second blow, he cried out, calling for assistance from God. He received twenty lashes and will get the balance in three months.

The Marriage of Sarah Bernhardt.

LONDON, April 4.—The Pall Mall Gazette says Sarah Bernhardt was married this morning at St. Andrews Church, Wells street, to M. Damala, a Greek gentleman of position. She will leave tonight for Barcelona, where she will continue her theatrical career.

PUBLIC LAWS OF RHODE ISLAND.

Passed at the January Session, 1882.

CHAPTER 286.

AN ACT in amendment of Chapter 229 of the Public Statutes, "Of Dower and of Jointure."

(Passed March 31, 1882.)

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:—

SECTION 1. Section 26 of Chapter 229 of the Public Statutes is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"SEC. 26. Widows may bequeath the crops as well of their dower as of other lands and tenements, and if any widow shall erect any building or other structure upon her dower land, or any fence on or around the same, her executors or administrators may enter thereon and remove the same, doing as little damage as may be to the freehold, at any time within six months after the death of such widow."

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 287.

AN ACT in amendment of Chapter 257 of the Public Statutes, "Of Fees and Costs in Certain Cases."

(Passed March 31, 1882.)

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15 of Chapter 257 of the Public Statutes is hereby amended so as to read as follows:—

"SEC. 15. The fees of witnesses shall be:—

For every day's attendance before the Supreme Court or Court of Common Pleas, $1.50.

For every mile's travel, 10 cents.

For every day's attendance before any other tribunal or magistrate, including attendance in giving depositions, 50 cents.

For every mile's travel, 10 cents.

For every day's commitment in jail upon default to enter into recognizance with surety, $2.00.

For any witness who shall come from without the jurisdiction of the state to testify in behalf of the state, in any criminal proceedings, such sum, in addition to his travel and attendance, as the court shall deem proper. In addition to the fees above provided, witnesses summoned and testifying as experts in behalf of the state before any Justice of the Supreme Court, Trial Justice or Coroner, may be allowed and paid such sum as such Justice of the Supreme Court, Trial Justice or Coroner may deem just and reasonable: Provided, that the allowance so made by any Trial Justice or Coroner shall be subject to the approval of a Justice of the Supreme Court."

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

I certify the foregoing to be true copies. Witness:

JOSHUA M. ADDEMAN,
Secretary of State.

WORKED THE WRONG WAY.

A story—quite as good for being true—is told of two medical students, the one a very large and the other a very small person, who were room-mates and bedfellows. On a certain warm night the big man, who was on the inner side, awoke to the consciousness that he was being crowded to the wall, his companion having taken a good-sized reservation in the middle of the bed. By way of punishing the encroachment with neatness and dispatch he gently adjusted his soles and ousted the little fellow so effectually as to land him on the carpet. The ejected one showed no sign of resentment until several nights later, when, finding his bulky comrade occupying a position similar to the one in which he had given offense, he plotted a revenge. Stealthily clambering over the huge form, he braced his back against the wall, and planting a foot on either side of his friend's spine, collected all his forces and gave a tremendous push. The effect was instantaneous, and, if not just what had been anticipated, was certainly in strict accordance with nature's laws. The big man moved, but the bed moved with him, opening a wide space between itself and the wall, through which the little man immediately dropped to the floor, where he doubtless had a chance to recover from his astonishment, and reflect on the reasons why another good plan had gone wrong.

UMBRELLA OWNERSHIP.

An interesting incident, which seems to furnish a hatful of morals to any one who is in search of such articles, occurred at one of our depots during a recent stormy day. A gentleman who had no umbrella and who had just come into town on a local train perceived before him, as he stepped into the street, a person whom he took to be an acquaintance, and who had a fine new umbrella hoisted over his head. Running up to him, therefore, he clapped him on the shoulder, saying, as he did so, by way of a joke:—"I'll take this umbrella, if you please." The individual thus addressed looked around and disclosed a perfect stranger, but before the other could apologize, he said hurriedly:—"Oh, it's yours, is it? Well, I didn't know that. Here, you can have it," and broke away, leaving the utensil in the hands of the first party in the conversation. This narrative, which is strictly true, affords a valuable hint to persons who may be caught out without protection from the rain.—[Boston Journal.

The Brenham (Texas) Independent has this bit of sentiment:—"A little child was passing through the hall of a comfortable home when it was just dark. As she glided along, her mother, overhearing footsteps, opened a door and tenderly asked:—'Is that you Pet?' The little neglected child uttered a suppressed sob, and with quivering lips answered:—'It isn't Pet, mamma; it's only me!' 'Only me!' A strange pang went through that mother's heart as the force of those words stung her to the quick. She had two children, and had made a pet of one, while she was indifferent and even rude to the other. She keenly felt the condemnation that she justly deserved, and taking her child to her arms quickly smothered its grief with a torrent of kisses and words of affection."

INVALIDS OF AMERICA!

Thousands of persons are suffering today from a variety of maladies. From these they have been suffering through many a weary year. The gamut of drug practice has been run through. This includes allopathy, homœopathy, electropathy and all the conceivable nonsense of the day—the results of which are always disappointment.

Nature, through thousands of years, has been violated, and the gifts of our Creator set at naught. We have shut out from ourselves the blessing of magnetism as found in the ever present sunlight, by clothing ourselves in fashionable attire. The

Is the greatest wonder of the age, yet one of the most simple of inventions, and the time is not far distant when no man or woman will think of dressing without wearing magnetized garments. The "Wilsonia" garment has been reduced in price so the poor can buy them as well as the rich. The "Wilsonia" will cure almost every case that is curable. Call or send for a circular to

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS AND THE NEWPORT JOURNAL.

The Newport Daily News is published every afternoon (Sundays excepted), at the News building, 137 Thames street, by Davis & Pitman.

The Newport Journal is published at the same office every Saturday morning and contains a selection of the best matter in the Daily, including editorial discussions of the topics of the week, literary miscellanies and at least one good story, and a complete and comprehensive summary of news,—local and general. The Journal is a large 36 column paper and contains a large amount of reading matter that is valuable to readers in town or country who desire a good Newport paper, but who do not take a daily from the city.

Complaints regarding the irregular or improper delivery of either paper should be sent to the office at once.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

The DailyNews, $6 per annum, or 12 cents a week payable to carrier.

The Newport Journal will be sent to any address in the United States, postage paid, for $2 a year. A discount of 50 cents is made when the whole year is paid strictly in advance. These terms are invariable.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Ordinary advertisements, $1 a square, for the first insertion, and 25 cents for each continuance. Ten lines, or less, in this type, make a square. Advertisements in reading matter are charged for, at 50 per cent. extra and are subject to editorial revision. A discount on these rates is allowed on all advertisements ordered in the Daily for one week or longer.

Notices of births, marriages and funerals 50 cents each.

Yearly advertisers are limited to their immediate business, are guaranteed but five insertions in a week and are allowed twenty-five changes a year.

The circulations of the News and Journal being necessarily distinct, an advertisement inserted in both papers will reach entirely different sets of readers. As further inducement for advertisers to use both News and Journal, a liberal discount on the combined rates is made.

PRINTING.

The News has four steam presses and is a large and well appointed job printing office. All orders for work in this department will be promptly filled, and at reasonable prices. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

Newport Daily News.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5, 1882.

The late Henry W. Longfellow made no public bequests in his will.

The Boston Evening Star, a live and newsy paper, has appeared in a larger and much improved form. We wish it all success.

The tax payers of Newport are to have an opportunity to vote on the adoption of the system of electric lights for certain portions of this city.

It is evident that only a few of our people are excited over the election today, and as a rule those who talk the loudest have the least at stake.

It is now understood that Rev. J. O. Thompson, of Middletown, will not remain another year, though his ministry there has been eminently successful.

The nominations of Senator Teller as Secretary of the Interior, and of William E. Chandler as Secretary of the Navy, are expected in the national Senate today.

Mr. James Gordon Bennett never does anything by halves. He has given $10,000 to the Actors' Fund now being raised in New York and other cities. When he gives, he gives, and no mistake about it.

Professor George Washington Greene, of this state, is to write the biography of Longfellow. The poet himself some six years ago selected Mr. Greene, who was a warm personal friend, to perform this agreeable duty.

The New England Southern Conference met in Providence this morning and will continue in session until next week. A considerable number of visitors will be in attendance from Newport. The Conference itself is comprised wholly of clergymen.

An aged crow, that could speak a dozen words distinctly, died recently in Bedford, Mass. He might have become famous in society but for his shocking profanity, which made his seclusion necessary. His early education had been very bad. It may be asked why profanity in a man is any better than in a crow.

It is bad enough when the sophomores of a college impose upon the freshmen, but Trinity college gives us an example of a hazing scrape, where the sophomores were imposed upon and the supposed-to-be "grave and reverend seniors" did the hazing. Three years in college ought to take some of this foolishness out of anybody who has any manliness in him.

The Mormons are badly discouraged by the passage of the Edmunds anti-polygamy bill. The lords of the harem are putting their surplus wives out of sight if not out of mind. If the law prevents the further contraction of plural marriages it will have accomplished its chief object and do more for the country than in simply breaking up present arrangements.

The recent disastrous conflagrations at Haverhill, Hopkinton and other towns should lead the citizens of Newport to increased watchfulness against similar accidents. No city is exempt from exposure to such calamities and the fact that many years have passed without serious loss is no proof of continued immunity. Too much care cannot be exercised in a wooden town like this, and there is a duty for each person to perform.

It is said that the oleomargarine factories of New York have a producing capacity of 116,000,000 pounds annually, while the production of dairy butter in the state is only 111,000,000 pounds. Thus the factories beat the cows in quantity as well as in price. The best cow butter is worth fifty cents a pound and the oleomargarine from 25 to 35 cents. Each man pays his money and takes his choice.

The President transmitted to the Senate yesterday a message vetoing the Chinese immigration bill, the vital objection thereto being the twenty years' suspension of the immigration clause which is construed as virtually prohibition and therefore violating the spirit of the treaty. The President regards the system of personal registration and passports as undemocratic and hostile to our institutions, and he alludes to the omission in the act of any provisions for the transportation to China of Chinese subjects now residing in foreign countries. The veto further points out that the Pacific states, especially California, have been greatly benefited by the labor of the Chinese, and argues that the passage of the bill would be injurious to our commerce with China. In the House a resolution was introduced by Mr. Morse, of Massachusetts, calling on the Secretary of the Navy for a statement of the amount of money expended during the last fiscal year in the Boston navy yard. Mr. Campo's bill to promote the efficiency of the revenue marine was reported from the commerce committee. The principal part of the session was spent in committee of the whole on the army appropriation bill, but no final action was reached.

President Arthur has shown the independence and firmness becoming a chief magistrate in his veto of the Chinese bill. Its passage was of a piece with that of the arrears of pensions swindle which ought to have shared the same fate, but which was allowed to become a law for want of presidential nerve. It is worth something to know that we have a man in the executive chair who lives up to his convictions.

The death of Miss Flora A. Fernald is announced in today's paper. She was the daughter of Rev. O. H. Fernald, formerly of this city, and was a graduate of Roger's high school, where she led her class and took the honors. On leaving Newport Mr. Fernald obtained an appointment in the vicinity of Wesleyan University that she might take a full college course. Miss Fernald was an estimable young lady and a brilliant scholar and her death will be greatly regretted.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR ON THE POLITICIANS.

President Arthur is credited with doing some pretty good work as a civil service reformer. A Washington correspondent writes that recently Congressman Bayne of Pennsylvania, who is a prominent reformer, went to the President and said:—"Mr. President, there is a certain post-office in my district that I am anxious about." I have recommended a man for the place, but still the matter remains unsettled. It is intimated by parties in my district that I have no influence with this administration, and that I cannot even control the postoffice contained therein. Now, Mr. President, I desire, nay, I demand that you nominate the man I have indicated, and thus set at rest the gossip in my district."

To this the President responded in no uncertain tones as follows:—"You must remember, sir, that while you are the one that recommends. I am the person who appoints, and am the one upon whom the responsibility for the appointment must rest. There seems to be a feeling among members of Congress that each one must establish himself a sort of a Deputy President, and control with arbitrary hand all appointments in their respective districts. I have humored this tendency for a time, but now such foolishness must stop. I have been influenced, in making all my appointments, by Senators and Representatives so far. The result of this is:—I have made some very unsatisfactory nominations. Hereafter, I shall be guided by my own judgment in the cases. When I am asked to select new men for places, I shall only take the recommendations of a Congressman the same as from other leading public men."

If President Arthur lives up to this profession he will be a very unpopular man at Washington, and in a little time throughout the country. The people have not risen to that ideal standard yet and it is doubtful if they ever will.

THE ELECTION.

Up to the hour of going to press the election in this city is proceeding quietly in all the wards. The vote during the morning was very light, but the numbers going to the polls are steadily on the increase, and there will be, probably, a larger vote polled than was indicated by first appearances.

There is no contest over the state ticket, the Democrats voting for their candidates pro forma, and for no other reason. A mongrel ticket was sent down from Providence substituting the name of Mr. Perry, Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, in place of that of Hon. Henry Fay, the present incumbent; and as it is avowedly in the interest of prohibition it may influence a few who do not see through the cheat. Governor Fay should receive the united and cordial support of his townsmen and this attempt to divert votes from him can do little harm.

The regular Republican representative ticket leads in all the wards and bids fair to be elected by about the usual majority. A portion of the men who were defeated in the caucus on Monday evening have bolted the nomination and brought out a list of candidates whose names appear elsewhere. All the gentlemen on that ticket have heretofore been Republicans and we suppose will desire an early return to the fold. The attempt to induce the Democrats to give a united support to this ticket is a failure. The gentlemen of that party see no especial advantages in supporting one wing of the Republicans any more than the other and where they have a preference they are voting accordingly. As neither ticket has a Democratic name upon it the appeal made by disaffected Republicans for Democratic help is not heeded.

It behooves every good citizen to go to the polls and cast his ballot. A desperate effort is made to defeat the ticket headed by T. Mumford Seabury and it should not be allowed to succeed. The gentlemen on that ticket have all done good service to the state, they represent us honorably in the Legislature and are in every way qualified for future service. They were nominated at one of the largest primary meetings ever held in the State House, and one that included a large proportion of our most prominent citizens. Let them now be returned to the General Assembly.

PORTSMOUTH.

The town council met at the town hall on Monday as a board of canvassers. The voting list was examined and carefully corrected and the board adjourned to Wednesday, April 5th. Three hundred and eighty names appear on the list qualified to vote.

The following council business was transacted:—The annual account current of the commissioners of the asylum was examined, allowed and settled for the year ending April 5th, 1882. The following bills were allowed and ordered paid out of the town treasury, viz.:—Of John Sampson, keeper of asylum, $62.50; of Philip B. Chase, for taking and returning school census, $20; of Philip B. Chase, town clerk, for collecting, recording, copying and returning births, marriages and deaths, $26.85; of commissioners of town asylum for the services for the year ending April 5th, 1882, $25; of same for balance due them on settlement of annual account, $109.20; of Henry Anthony, overseer of the poor, for assistance rendered to J. J. Coggeshall, $48; of same for assistance rendered to Benjamin Macomber, $42; of Henry Anthony, for canvassers' and clerks' fees, $12.

The report of the commissioners appointed on the estate of Sarah Coggeshall, deceased, was received, allowed and ordered recorded. An inventory to the personal estate of William W. Cundall, deceased, was presented, allowed and ordered recorded. License was granted to Isaac Cundall, administrator on the estate of William W. Cundall, deceased, to sell the inventory of the personal estate of said Cundall at private sale. The final account of Nancy Kennedy, administratrix on the estate of Timothy Kennedy, deceased, was examined, allowed and ordered recorded. The second account of George B. Coggeshall, executor of the last will and testament of Albert Cornell, deceased, was examined, allowed and ordered recorded.

A NEW MEDICAL SOCIETY.

A meeting of the practicing physicians of Newport took place last evening at the residence of Dr. Rankin for the purpose of forming a medical society. The name decided upon was Newport Medical Society. A majority of the city doctors were present, and a lively interest was manifested in the enterprise.

A committee on organization was appointed to report at the next monthly meeting, and the following officers were elected:—

EASTER REMEMBRANCES.

Within a period of two years says an exchange, the custom of making Easter presents has become a well-observed fashion. Before that time remembrances of friendship exchanged at this season of the year generally consisted of eggs, hard boiled, with the shell decorated in gay colors or bearing some trifling design. Now exchanging of presents has become as common and fashionable as on Christmas; the egg has given way to the chicken, and the exchange of Easter greetings is now made by means of elaborately painted and illuminated cards.

LITTLE CHICKENS IN FASHION.

At almost every store in the city where specialty is now being made of Easter novelties, or where this class of goods is dealt in at all, are bits of chickens no larger than an ordinary egg-shell, whose coats have not fully developed from a mass of downy fuzz into well defined feathers. Ever since the first of the year the incubators, or artificial mothers of thousands of young chickens, have been at work hatching out their broods for the use of the caterers to the demands of this very recent and singular taste. The chickens have a very brief existence after they leave the shell, rarely exceeding a week, being turned over at the end of that time to the hands of the taxidermists. By them they are butchered, and the delicate skins carefully prepared, stuffed and then turned over to the hands of the manufacturers of Easter novelties. On leaving the hands of the taxidermists, these little chickens are mounted in all sorts of fantastic and grotesque shapes. A favorite method is to mount the chick so that it shall, with head askance, seem to be gazing wonderingly at a broken egg-shell from which it has seemingly just emerged. A pretty effect is produced by mounting a couple of the little fellows beside two broken shells, and as they are represented as gazing wonderingly at one another the result is quite comical. Frequently the yellow down-covered chicks are represented as sitting on a nest, lying in a mass of dried grasses and flowers. From underneath its smooth little body and wings vainly stretched in an attempt to hide them from view peep forth from two to four egg-shaped perlets, usually bits of wood or clay carefully covered with silk of red, white, blue, pale green, or mottled tints. In other cases the chick is carefully mounted against a plaque, represented sometimes as feeding, again as nestling in a bed of weeds and grasses, and frequently as kicking from the nest the egg-shell in which it had passed its days of incubation. In this way and in many others ducklings of not over a week old, and humming birds, finches, thrushes, and other small birds are sacrificed to furnish material for the construction of these pieces, which are just now the particularly proper things for use as presents for the Easter season.

HUMOR IN EGGS.

That the egg has not become obsolete is assured by the many forms in which it appears among the mass of designs for Easter gifts. The humorous side of the prevailing furore is very cleverly shown, and funny caricatures of well-known faces are the result. One of these eggs is set upright with the more painted end in the air. The large end is encircled with a Byronic collar of white paper, a bit of blue silk serving as a necktie. From the pointed end a mass of black worsted falls over the back and side of the shell, the mass being carefully parted in the middle. The portion of the shell left exposed is painted to represent a face, and the result is one that needs no label to inform the observer who the caricature represents. Oscar Wilde is as clearly to be seen in the clever bit of work as in one of Sarony's portraits. The broad side of an egg more nearly round in shape serves for the reproduction of Dick Deadeye, the popular character in "Pinafore." The large end of an egg properly painted, a mass of golden-red worsted for hair, a jaunty straw hat with flowing ribbons, and a bit of muslin to represent the neck of a dress, serve to reproduce General Stanley's favorite daughter, Mabel, the heroine of the "Pirates of Penzance." The real chicken's egg is hardly used in the novelties offered for this season, substitutes of wood, china, clay and other materials being used. Where the size of the egg or an approximate thereto is retained, and decoration is indulged in, these substitutes are usually neatly covered with silks in shades of red and blue.

The proper thing for a young gentleman to present a young lady friend is now prescribed by fashion to be a jewel or bon-bon box in the shape of an egg, and varying in size from the egg of a turkey to that of an ostrich. These are always covered with silk, frequently decorated with elaborate hand-painted designs, and, in the case of the jewel boxes lined with silk or satin of some brilliant color. When china is the material used in the construction of the Easter gifts the conceits of manufacturers take a wider range than in the finer grades of goods. Eggs are thus made to bring into being very singular products. A broken shell will reveal children, bunches of flowers, bouquets, and other impossible outcomings of the natural egg, as well as impossible chickens and birds of impossible plumage and decorated with garlands of impossible flowers. Those who can afford to purchase, find handsome presents for favored friends in the huge ostrich eggs, elaborately decorated by hand, and there is this season quite a demand for these at the leading jewelry stores and houses of dealers in bric-a-brac and art novelties.

NOVELTIES IN ART.

One of the most novel of the distinctively new gifts is a representation of a stork, which stands beside its roughly constructed nest of twigs and leaves, and has in its beak a naked china doll. This is an imported novelty, the work of the Dutch artisan, and represents the legend current in Holland, where the children are taught that it is the stork that brings the babies as their contributions to Holland's population.

Stationery with special Easter designs and doves mounted as if to take flight, or arranged with wings outspread for suspension from a convenient chandelier or doorway, find favor as Easter purchases. Easter cards, in which crosses, passion flowers, doves, &c., play an important part, are standard goods in the markets, and this year large numbers are imported from England and Germany to compete with the designs of American artists. Texts of scripture, Easter greetings, or selections in English or Latin from the Episcopal or Catholic Easter services, generally adorn these cards, some of which are handsome and command large prices. Cards with designs of various kinds inset, or "cards" of satin embroidered or hand-painted, are the novelties in this line for the coming Easter holidays, which begin with Easter, April 9. --[Boston Star.

The location is a very desirable one, on very elevated land, and the deeds will be passed in a few days. Mr. Norman has not fully decided whether to take the supply of water from the Kickemuit river or from a source much nearer the location of his main reservoir. In either case, the work will be entered on very soon.

SHALL A CLASS BE PROSCRIBED?

To the Editor of the Daily News:—

I thank you for your kind reference to my article given in the Boston Herald of Saturday, but have you not been unfortunate in the use of the word "elevation?" You hinge your criticism of my article on it. I do not use it. I refer to the effect of proscribing an entire class in the distribution of honors and trust; to the passing by all of its members, and say, the occupancy of places that carry with them consideration beget respect not simply for the occupant but for his class, that the ignoring of it, as in the case of the colored class, tends to a lessening of consideration therefor. Would not the fifty or more colored Republicans who voted at the caucus Monday have been advantaged and felt that there was decent respect for them and their class: would not the class have commanded more respect in the community, had one of it been selected as a Representative from Newport? Had it selected for instance, Mr. Van Horne, who is certainly as capable as are some of those who were selected? I am not advocating any particular person's claim, myself included; it would not be a personal advantage to me to have been selected, in fact, a committee waited on me and urged me to allow my name to be used as a candidate. I refused. I felt it would be a personal disadvantage to me to attend to the duties of the office, and further, I felt bound by the action of the caucus.

I desire to enjoy the esteem of my fellow townsmen and to be regarded as just and considerate in any demand I may make for the colored man. Will you not publish my communication referred to?

GEORGE T. DOWNING.

The difference between Margery Deane's "European Breezes" and other books of European travel is seen in the way it descends to details in regard to expense and other matters above which the ordinary writer of travel soars sublime, and the way in which it does not rise to fine writing. THE VETO OF THE CHINESE BILL.

Great Excitement in California.

Special Despatch to the Daily News.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—There is great excitement in California over the veto of the Chinese bill. The President is severely condemned by the newspapers and politicians. There have been a few cases of burning and hanging the President in effigy.

ANOTHER LARGE FIRE.

North Attleboro' the Sufferer.

Special Despatch to the Daily News.]

PROVIDENCE, April 5.—It is reported that a large jewelry establishment in North Attleboro', Mass., owned by the heirs of the late Stephen Richardson, was burnt this morning. Eight jewelry manufacturing firms are said to be completely burnt out.

PROPOSED WORLD'S REGATTA.

A Large Contribution Towards the Purses.

Special Despatch to the Daily News.]

NEW YORK, April 5.—T. B. Murray has cabled to Hanlan, care of the London Sportsman, that Winnepeg contributes $15,000 for the regatta open to all the world with purses for a series of races.

New York Papers.

Special Despatch to the Daily News.]

NEW YORK, April 5.—The Herald, Tribune and Times approve the President's veto of the Chinese bill.

PERSONALS.

......Lord Randolph Churchill sails for America on the 26th inst.

......Ex-Governor Moses is now "No. 1601" in the Rogues' Gallery in New York.

......Mr. George I. Seney, of New York, has given $15,000 to pay off the debt of the Hackettstown (N. J.) Methodist Collegiate Institute.

......The Italie of Rome says it appears certain that Cardinal Jacobini, Papal Secretary of State, will retire, because he believes that his authority is impaired.

......The fiftieth anniversary of the settlement of Rev. E. E. Cummings, D. D., as pastor of the First Baptist Church in Concord, N. H., was celebrated on Sunday.

......The Southern Methodists are engaged in an effort to raise funds for the erection of a monument over the grave of the late Bishop Wightman in Magnolia cemetery, Charleston.

......Mr. Longfellow once said to J. J. Piatt:—"People like books of poems which they can read through at a sitting. The publishers insist on quantity, but I have always aimed to have my books small."

......Mr. Charles O'Connor's house at Nantucket recently caught fire. The fire was discovered by a neighbor, who extinguished it without giving a general alarm. Mr. O'Connor speedily gave him a generous reward of about $300.

......A letter recently received in Chicago from Gen. Hurlbut, late minister to Peru, contains the following passage:—"But I think the United States are going to back from the position I have held here, and this compels my return home. I have written the Secretary that if the Government proposes such action I cannot and will not represent it any longer."

......Professor George Washington Greene writes to the Providence Journal that he is to prepare a biography of Mr. Longfellow. He says that "six years ago he and I agreed to be each other's biographer, and from that time to this have kept this intention in view. The materials are abundant, particularly the family letters, all of which have been placed at my disposal."

......Rev. E. E. Hale, D. D., who will sail for Europe April 15, was given a reception in the vestry of his church last evening by the members of his parish, who attended in large numbers. The affair was entirely informal, which added largely to its enjoyment. Earlier in the day the reverend gentleman was completely surprised by the receipt of a substantial token of the esteem in which he is held by his parish.

......Just as President Gowan, of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company, was leaving his office in Philadelphia preparatory to his departure for Europe, a delegation of prominent gentlemen entered the apartment and presented him with a magnificent silver vase in testimonial of their appreciation of his brave and effective services in suppressing lawlessness in the coal regions and protecting lives and property imperilled by it.

A STORY OF LINCOLN.

In the darkest hour of the late civil war, a great question arose in a thriving northern town, which for the purposes of this article shall be called Pepperton. This question was nothing less than this:—Which of the two local henchmen should be postmaster. The contest waxed fierce. Deputation after deputation rushed to Washington—saw the Congressman, the Senator, the postmaster-general, the President himself—besought, insisted, badgered. The subordinate henchmen thronged the corridors of the Capitol by day, and the bar-rooms by night. The attention of honorable members was besought, for articles in the Perkins County Herald on one side and the Pepperton Register on the other. Monster petitions were forwarded by either side—petitions all the more monstrous because most people signed both.

Meantime, the civil war dragged on with increasing horrors. Rivers of blood had flowed, billions of treasure had been flung into the abyss, when a good old Pepperton Judge—a steady Presbyterian deacon—visited Washington to see what light he could get on national affairs. In due time he stood before President Lincoln. The Judge was shocked at the careworn face of the President, tried to comfort him, and said:—"Mr. Lincoln, I am sorry to see you not so well as when you passed through Pepperton. You must not let the rebellion weary you. The Lord is with us; He will not let slavery and disunion conquer. He has purposes with this republic which—"

"Oh, Judge," said Mr. Lincoln, "it isn't the rebellion that is killing me—it isn't the rebellion; it is your plagued Pepperton postoffice!"

This utterance of Mr. Lincoln—which is historical—goes, like so many quaint sayings of his, far into the marrow of the evil. Columns of argument could not so well reveal the effect of the present system upon the executive; and the fun becomes grim earnest when one recalls the fate of Harrison and Garfield.—[President White in North American Review.

DUST, DUSTERS AND WIPE.

Do not dust, but wipe! Who would believe it? The duster—that peaceful emblem of domestic toil—may, under certain circumstances, become more dangerous to handle than a six-shooter. We are in dead earnest. An eminent scientist declares it to be a fact. Do you know just what you are doing when you brush away dust? You disseminate in the air, and consequently introduce into your own interior, into your tissues and respiratory organs, all sorts of eggs, spores, epidemic germs and murderous vibriones which dust contains. One movement with a feather duster may be enough to poison both you and your neighbors—to inoculate you all with typhus, varioloid or cholera—strange as it may appear. Instead of a feather duster take a cloth; wipe away the dust instead of stirring it up. In short, wipe—never dust!—[Le Voltaire.

YACHTING NOTES.

The "ladies' day" of the Atlantic Yacht Club has been fixed for Saturday, June 10.

The annual regatta of the Atlantic Yacht Club will take place on Tuesday, June 13.

The New York Yacht Club will hold its annual regatta on Thursday, June 15.

The annual Corinthian regatta of the Seawanhaka Yacht Club will be sailed on Saturday, June 17.

The steam yacht Radha, N. Y. Y. C., Mr. Pierre Lorillard, is about to start on a trip to the southward.

The sloop yacht Schemer, S. Y. C., Mr. W. S. Alley, is being thoroughly overhauled at South Brooklyn.

The schooner yacht Vega, E. Y. C., Mr. Henry C. Lea, is now fitting out at Philadelphia for a trip to the West Indies.

The schooner yacht Norseman, N. Y. Y. C., Mr. Ogden Goelet, arrived at New York Tuesday morning from Savannah. She has been absent three weeks.

The steam yacht Pastime, Rev. J. L. Aspinall, is at Brooklyn, being calked and generally overhauled in hull and machinery. She will have new spars.

The elegant schooner rigged steamer yacht Rhodha, owned by Mr. P. Lorillard, of New York, arrived at Richmond Monday morning. She attracts much attention and admiration.

The opening sail of the Atlantic, Seawanhaka and New Haven Yacht clubs will take place on May 30. The spring regatta of the Knickerbocker Yacht Club will take place the same day.

The schooner yacht Dauntless, N. Y. Y. C., ex-Commodore Waller, left New York Saturday afternoon with her owner and several guests for Fortress Monroe. She may go as far as Bermuda.

The new schooner yacht Montauk, building for Mr. Samuel R. Platt, of the New York Yacht Club, will be launched about the 27th inst. Her masts have been stepped and her bowsprit is in place.

The schooner yacht Foam, Eastern Yacht Club, owned by Mr. F. Gordon Dexter, Boston, is undergoing general overhaul at Noank, Conn., and will be ready for sea by the middle of May, with Captain Charles F. Reynolds, of Mystic River, Conn., at the wheel.

The Southampton correspondent of the same journal says:—"The fifteen ton racing cutter Maggie has been launched from the yard, and she is now being fitted out to be sailed round to Liverpool, thence to be transported to America."

The American schooner Intrepid, says the Gosport correspondent of the London Field, March 18, is having her decks calked and sundry repairs effected. She will be taken into the corporation dock, at Portsmouth, in the course of the next few days for the purpose of a general survey. She is to be recalked and recoppered.

The Nautical Gazette says:—Complaints have reached our office that the pilots of the annex boats Birkbeck and City of Chester, too often fail to answer passing signals. The Fall River line pilots threaten to complain to the district attorney if this negligence to obey the law continues. It is only $50 fine.

The boats for Mr. James Gordon Bennett's new steam yacht Namouna have been completed. The gig is 28 feet long, the life-boat 25 feet long, and the dingy 16 feet. They are all finely modelled, and the workmanship and material first class in every respect. All these boats are fitted with Knight's Patent Rudder Attachment.

The schooner yacht Columbia, Mr. Lester Wallack, is in winter quarters at New London, and will go into commission about the 1st of June. There has been a current rumor in Eastern yachting circles that Mr. Wallack was desirous of selling the Columbia and of building a steam yacht. This report is now denied. The Columbia will not undergo any decided change of rig this year. Captain Andrew Comstock, of New London, will command her.

Mr. G. L. Daboll, the veteran yacht builder, is superintending at Palmer's shipyard, at Noank, the building of a superbly modelled, large schooner yacht for Mr. George H. B. Hill, of New York, the owner of the schooner yacht Prospero. The new vessel will belong to the N. Y. Y. C., and will be one of the finest recent additions to the fleet. She is well in hand and will be ready for sea in June. Her measurements are 97 feet over all, 92 feet on water line, 23 feet 6 inches beam, 9 feet 6 inches depth of hold, and 7 feet 9 inches draught.

The Greenport (L. I.) Watchman, April 1, says:—"The handsome schooner yacht Republic, belonging to Henry J. Steer, of Providence, now moored in Sterling Basin, this port, has undergone material improvement and embellishment during the winter at the hands of Mr. David Pollock and his skilled assistants. In the cabin and skylights (one of the latter being renewed entirely) new sideboards of Hungarian ash and satinwood have been added, with marble tops and nickel-plated fastenings, the whole forming a very rich and tasteful effect. Captain Gladding, of Bristol, R. I., sailing master, is to take charge of her next week, and she will go into commission some time in May.

CONGRESSMAN BELMONT.

A Washington correspondent writes thus bluntly and forcibly of Hon. Perry Belmont, now a member of Congress from New York city and a recent graduate of Harvard College:—"The greatest surprise in Congress is Perry Belmont, of Long Island. His father is August Belmont, the rich banker and American agent of the Rothschild. It was supposed that the money of Belmont père secured his election, and that the young man was as big an ass and as namby-pamby as the sons of rich men usually are. People who believed this expected nothing from him beyond lolling in his seat and ogling the pretty girls in the gallery. Well, he isn't any such a man. He is a young fellow, about 30 years of age, medium height, slender in figure, dark complexion, and rather distingue in appearance. He is as modest as a girl and as studious as a bookworm. This will doubtless surprise people who have known him only as a society man. He is a fair lawyer and a hard worker. He speaks several languages fluently, and is just the kind of man to be trained in diplomatic circles. He is not hide-bound in politics, though a Democrat. My word for it, Belmont will make his mark here, not because he has money, but by virtue of close application and good common sense."

SUNDRIES.

Mr. Editor—Tell me why colonel
Is spelled in a style so infolonel?
Shed one ray of light
On a sorrowful wight.
Who for years has subscribed for "The Jolonel." —[Boston Journal.

Child—"Herr Pastor, my mother sends me to say that my father died tonight." Pastor—"Did you call a doctor?" "No, Herr Pastor, he died of himself."—[German Paper.

Aunt—"Has any one been at these preserves?" Dead silence. "Have you touched them, Jimmy?" Jimmy, with the utmost deliberation—"Pa never 'lows me talk at dinner."

"And now," shouts an excited exchange, "where shall we look for independence?" Oh, friend and brother, searching and long-suffering fellow sufferer, look in the kitchen, look in the kitchen!—[Burlington Hawkeye.

Luminous.—First swell:—"I never did like 'May,'—not nearly so pretty as 'Mary;' wonder they don't change the name of the month to "Mary." Second swell:—"Clevaw ideaw, by Jove! make awystaws good to June, you know!"

A boy who had always refused to eat oatmeal, in spite of his mother's urgings that it was a strengthening diet, suddenly surprised her, one morning, by eating a liberal plateful and calling for more. Upon his mother asking for an explanation he replied:—"I am bound to eat oatmeal till I am strong enough to whip Johnny Scott!"

CANARIES.

HINTS REGARDING FOOD AND CARE.

Canaries and many other species of birds are troubled with inflammation of the intestines. The causes most likely to produce this are over-eating, especially of "high" food, like eggs, or partaking of green stuff which is in a state of decomposition. Sometimes the drinking water, which should be fresh and clean each morning, is left unchanged for several days. The symptoms indicate acute pain in the region affected. The bird is dull, cares little to move about, is silent, and often rests bodily on the perch. There is no desire to eat, and great thirst, and the bowels usually costive, though sometimes the bird has the diarrhoea. Frequently there is vomiting of the bile and mucus. An examination, conducted very gently, will reveal a swollen and distorted condition of the lower part of the abdomen, with some change of color, varying according to the stage of the disorder, from pale to dark red, amounting in very dangerous cases to a very dark hue. This inflammation may be cured if treatment is begun at once and a decided course followed. Let the bird be put, if possible, into a clean, dry cage and hung in a warm, well-ventilated room and the food changed and be entirely non-stimulating, but at the same time nourishing; plain crackers mixed with new milk, to which should be added a little moist sugar. Let the bird have only this food for a day or two. If the bird, in the commencement, is constipated, the bowels should be opened with two or three drops of pure oil, but if there is much inflammation purgatives should not be employed. Counter-irritation will do much good. Paint the lower part of the abdomen, by means of a camel's hair brush, with warm turpentine. This gives relief and should be repeated once or twice if necessary. Opium is of great service in this complaint. Place, therefore, every morning in the fresh water 30 drops of ipecacuanha wine and 15 of laudanum, along with a bit of gum arabic and two or three grains of the nitrate of potash. But in more severe cases we prefer opium in conjunction with belladonna—ten drops of each of the tinctures in the drinking water—a little gum and a little sweetening of glycerine. Breeding birds can be fed on rich food without the danger of evils resulting therefrom that birds not at work might incur. Birds which are in thin physical condition so as to be enfeebled, or are through carelessness, moulting, will not usually mate; and in exceptional cases, when they mate and hatch, it is seldom the young birds live. Only a manual examination—the actual taking of the bird in the hand—will disclose his real condition. Frequently the expression is heard, "My bird is too fat to sing," and it would seem to be the fact, since he looks so large, because the feathers stand out straight—are puffed up—but such a bird is usually found to be a mere skeleton, and greatly in need of appetizing food and a change of diet. Feed such a skeleton cracker soaked in as much sweet milk as it can absorb, and give twice a day as much egg chopped fine as will lie on a twenty-five-cent piece. Let the mated birds have the boiled eggs chopped fine, and a little cracker dust mixed with it, fresh three or four times a day, plenty of apple or lettuce or chickweed, and an abundance of coarse gravel. Before each laying furnish pounded oyster shells or crushed old plastering. The German summer rape seed, Sicily canary seed and the millet seed, equal parts mixed, should be the regular diet; a small quantity of hemp seed will also be beneficial. When young birds are a week old they may be transferred to a new, clean nest, which should be the same style as the old one; if the nest is properly cared for, the birds will seldom be troubled with insects; but should these pests appear, use the German insect powder.—[Holden's Bird Magazine.

It is useless to deny that the brightest and fairest fall easy victims to consumption, and equally fruitless to ignore the fact that decline has its origin in many cases in neglected catarrh. Sanford's Radical Cure is a pure, sweet balsamic specific.

Winthrop Wrought-Iron Furnace!
Has been in use for the past seven years, and given entire satisfaction. I offer it to the public as the most desirable furnace on the market. Special attention is called to the new dust-flue damper and revertible flues, that are not found in the other wrought-iron furnaces. The dust-flue damper prevents escape of dust when shaking down; the revertible flues cause the flames to sweep the entire surface of the wrought-iron drum, thereby securing much greater radiation of heat, and consequently a great saving in fuel. Cost less to keep in repair than any other furnaces. Are powerful heaters, with moderate consumption of coal. I have sold over 70 in this city. Sold by

The Salvator for Invalids and the Aged. An Incomparable Aliment for the Growth and Protection of Infants and Children. A Superior Nutritive in Continued Fevers, and a Reliable Remedial Agent in all Diseases of the Stomach and Intestines.

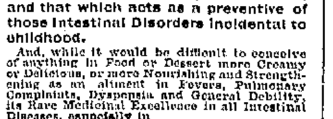

THIS justly celebrated Dietetic Preparation, is, in composition, principally the GLUTEN derived from the WHITE WINTER FLINT WHEAT CEREAL, a solid extract, the invention of an eminent Chemist. It has not only been highly recommended but certified to by a large number of Chemists and Physicians—representing a very high degree of medical science—as the SAFEST, MOST ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE FOOD FOR THE GROWTH AND PROTECTION OF INFANTS AND CHILDREN, and for Mothers lacking Sufficient Nourishment for their offspring.

Unlike those preparations made from animal or vinous matter, which are liable to stimulate the brain and irritate the digestive organs, it embraces in its elementary composition—

That which makes strong Bone and Muscle. That which makes good Flesh and Blood. That which is easy of Digestion—never constipating. That which is kind and friendly to the Brain, and that which acts as a preventive of those Intestinal Disorders incidental to childhood.

And, while it would be difficult to conceive of anything in Food or Dessert more Creamy or Delicious, or more Nourishing and Strengthening as an aliment in Fevers, Pulmonary Complaints, Dyspepsia and General Debility, its Rare Medicinal Excellence in all Intestinal Diseases, especially in

Dysentery, Chronic Diarrhoea and Cholera Infantum,
